Excerpt: .in a fright; but Jenny, who came last, and saw nothing, forgave him, and they were married. Many years after this, about the year 1790, two ladies paid a visit at Allanbank--I think the house was then let---and passed the night there. They had never heard a word about the ghost; but they were disturbed the whole night with something walking backwards and forwards in their bed-chamber. This I had from the best authority. Sir Robert Stuart was created a baronet in the year 1687. Lady Stapleton, grandmother of the late Lord Le Despencer, told me, that the night Lady Susan Fane, Lord Westmoreland's daughter, died in A species of lace made of bluead.--Jamie-son. London, she appeared to her father, then at Merriworth, in Kent. He was in bed, but had not fallen asleep. There was a light in the room; she came...
