So Pilate takes the initiative, and reopens the case, issuing a general call to the accusers of Jesus, and the people, calling them together again. Therefore, when they were gathered together (Matthew). Do teachers, students of the Bible, and Christian publications believe, and teach according to this scripture Nay verily! If the readers of the New Testament would give more attention, and careful study on this point, there would not be such unbelievable and absurd teachings as to the time occupied in the seven different trials of Jesus, in four different places, and before three different tribunals. The theory, that from the time of his arrest, about midnight, to about six o'clock the next morning, was ample time for all of these trials, in the different places, is unreasonable, incredible, and without authority or...
