This appropriation is asked, not to declare war against the Cherokee Indians, but to prevent and suppress a protracted and bloody war by them upon the white settlements in North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, and Georgia. This object meets my decided approbation. The volunteers and militia now called by the Government into public service for this pacific purpose must be supported and paid. A small portion of the Cherokee country laps on the southwestern part of North Carolina, and lies within the limits of the congressional district which I have the honor to represent on this floor. I have no hostile feelings to the Cherokee Indians; my constituents and my State have no unkind feelings to them. Since the treaty of Hopewell, in the year 1785, down to this day, the State of...
