Resource Publications Feb 2016, 2016. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 216x140x6 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - This book is written as a memoir of 40-plus years of working with human experiences of death, grief, and bereavement. The stories are all similar but uniquely different; similar in the sense that they all relate to varying issues embedded in loss. They are different in how each of these losses occur. The author invites the reader into a world of overwhelming grief brimming with raw emotions. The stories are true and tackle the capricious and unpredictable nature of death in a society that seeks to avoid and overcome the reality of death. Most of the stories are told from the perspective of a hospital chaplain working with real people. While these stories are profoundly sad, the author invites the reader to search for and find snippets of hope through a recommitment to life and living--constantly holding before the reader the dialectic tension that exists between life and death. "Through the Eyes of the Heart: Stories of Love and Loss is elegantly written. This set of heartfelt stories offers important insights into some major human challenges. The warmth and wisdom of the author come shining through. This book is a delight." --Neil Thompson, Consultant; Author of Grief and its Challenges "[This book] is autobiographical and instructive, bringing together shepherd and sheep. . . . This is an empowering book because Dan knows the might and power of holy work. Dan freely shares stories, values, and himself as he walks with others." --Richard B. Gilbert, Adjunct faculty, Graduate School of Social and Behavioral Science, Mercy College, "This is not only a good read, it's a human read, gathering steam and teaching us, even those of us who have...
