Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Abraham Lincoln and the Illinois Central Railroad: Main Line of Mid-America The Illinois Central may well be proud of Abraham Lincoln - not because he afterward became President of the United States, but because as an attorney he served his client superlatively well. - Paul M. Angle, Historian and Lincoln Biographer There are persons still living who remember seeing Abraham Lincoln - so recently was he among us - yet, already more books have been written about him than about any other American. Nearly every biography of Lincoln contains references to his employment by the Illinois Central Railroad. Some biographies give considerable emphasis to this phase of Lincoln's career; others give it little more than passing attention. Aside from his public service - as state representative, as Congressman, and finally as President of the United States - Lincoln spent more time in the service of the Illinois Central than in that of any other employer. And he received from the Illinois Central not only the largest law fee of his career but also more...
