Education: Controls Are Needed Over Indian Self-Determination Contracts, Grants, and Training and Technical Assistance Activities

By -

BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 46 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. The U. S. Government Accountability Office (GAO) is an independent agency that works for Congress. The GAO watches over Congress, and investigates how the federal government spends taxpayers dollars. The Comptroller General of the United States is the leader of the GAO, and is appointed to a 15-year term by the U. S. President. The GAO wants to support Congress, while at the same time doing right by the citizens of the United States. They audit, investigate, perform analyses, issue legal decisions and report anything that the government is doing. This is one of their reports. The Secretary of the Interior should direct the Assistant Secretary for Indian Affairs to develop a management reporting system to help monitor and control self-determination contracts, grants, and training and technical assistance activities. The Assistant Secretary should also be directed to revise BIA policies, regulations, procedures, and practices to: prohibit award of contracts in which the starting date precedes the date of award; require that all contracts and grants include specific criteria against which to measure performance; require that contracts and grants are effectively supervised...
